1. The Nebraska Brand Committee may, at its discretion, grant permission to any cattle owner based in the Nebraska Brand Inspection Area as described in Section 41 (3) Nebraska Livestock Brand Act or in an adjacent state having a mandatory brand inspection law and operating under authority of the Packers and Stockyards Division of the United States Department of Agriculture, to remove cattle from a county within the Nebraska Brand Inspection Area that is adjacent to the brand area line into an adjacent county, or portion thereof, or into a county of a state adjacent to the brand area line without having an inspection by the Nebraska Brand Committee as described in Section 41 (3) Nebraska Livestock Brand Act. Any person or persons granted this permission shall agree that the cattle so removed shall be returned to the brand inspection area of the state of origin within twelve (12) months from the date of removal. Should any cattle removed from the brand area under this permission and agreement be marketed in any manner or otherwise not returned to the brand area within twelve (12) months for any reason, the person or persons being granted this permission shall contact the Nebraska Brand Committee and make arrangements to have said cattle inspected by the Nebraska Brand Committee and pay the regular brand inspection fee and surcharge if inside the Brand Inspection Service Area. If cattle are located in the non-brand inspection area or another state the actual expense to perform the inspection as outlined in Nebraska Revised Statute 54-1,108 Section 2(c) are due.
2. The Nebraska Brand Committee may, at its discretion, grant a permit to any non-Nebraska Brand Inspection Area based cattle owner in the state of Nebraska to transport cattle into the brand area and to remove cattle outside of the Nebraska Brand Inspection Area if the parcels of land described above are located in an adjacent county to the brand inspection area line and/or if the parcels of land are located in an adjacent county within the brand inspection area of the State of Nebraska.
3. No permit shall be granted to any non-Nebraska Brand Inspection Area based cattle owner to remove cattle outside the state of Nebraska Brand Inspection Area unless the parcels of land described above are located in an adjacent county within the brand inspection area of a state having a brand inspection law and operating under authority of the Packers and Stockyards Division of the United States Department of Agriculture.
4. Permit holder shall agree to permit inspectors/investigators of the Nebraska Brand Committee to inspect the herd at any time during daylight hours without cost to the permit holder.
5. Cattle moved from the Nebraska Brand Inspection area by virtue of this special permit shall be subject to the brand inspection laws of the state where the parcels of land located outside the Nebraska Brand Area as described above are located.
6. Permit holder shall re-apply if descriptions of land change prior to expiration.
